

The Clinical Research Association of Canada Presents: CANADIAN CLINICAL TRIALS ASSET MAP CALGARY: THURSDAY June 25, 2015

CRAC is excited to announce the Summer 2015 Calgary Chapter event for clinical research professionals at the Best Western, 1804 Crowchild Trail N.W. | Calgary | Alberta | T2M 3Y7

On June 25th, 2015 Elena Aminkova will present the latest progress from the much-anticipated Canadian Clinical Trials Asset Map (CCTAM) initiative, which aims to showcase Canada's robust talents and resources within the clinical research industry and position Canada as an attractive destination for the conduct of clinical trials in the global marketplace. This presentation will include a LIVE DEMO of the database. The asset map database includes all clinical research sites across Canada, including academic sites and private sites. Sites should attend and see how they too can be part of this database.

AGENDA

5:30 – 6:15PM Registration
6:15 – 7:15PM Dinner
7:15 – 9:00PM Presentation / Discussion: Canadian Clinical Trials Asset Map

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Attendees will learn about:

- Why the CCTAM was developed and why it is important to Canada
- The benefits of the CCTAM
- How to be included in the CCTAM and how the CCTAM supports sites, institutions, networks, and investigators

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Elena Aminkova, Project Manager, Scientific and Strategic Affairs, CCTAM

Elena has been the Canadian Clinical Trials Asset Map \(CCTAM\) Project Manager since August of 2013, making significant contribution to the project's progress. Elena has over 10 years of project management and research experience in the academic, private, public, and non-for-profit sectors. Prior to joining Canada's Research-Based Pharmaceutical Companies (Rx&D) as CCTAM Project Manager, Elena worked at Health Canada where she was a Program Policy Officer in the Office of Policy and Strategic Planning. There, she was responsible for project management of complex projects, stakeholder relations (NGOs, intergovernmental and provincial government), and policy.
